Forget Me Not Tea Party 2021

'Forget Me Nots represent the ever-lasting love we have for those who go before us and who we hold forever in our hearts.'

Hosting a Forget Me Not Tea Party is a wonderful way to bring people together and show your support for Aching Arms. The vital funds you raise will help to ensure we can continue to offer comfort and support to bereaved families following the loss of their baby during pregnancy, at birth, or shortly after.

Your tea party can be in memory of a baby special to you or simply to support our ongoing work.

WHERE

Hosting your very own, in person or virtual online, tea party is a brilliant way to connect with your family, friends or colleagues and fundraise for Aching Arms from the comfort of your own home, support bubble or workplace. It's something uplifting and different for everyone to look forward to.

WHEN

This year, due to the phased easing of Covid-19 restrictions, our tea party season is extended through to the end of 2021 giving you more options and greater flexibility of when to host your event.

HOW

Set your tea party time and date, choose your location or online video call platform, and invite your guests. Simply collect donations using an online fundraising page such as Virgin Money Giving.

Bake it, make it, or buy it! Be as fun and creative as you would like with your tasty tea party treats. Will you enjoy a classic cuppa and a slice of cake, a round of sandwiches and savouries, a platter of cheese and biscuits, toasting indoor smores, or perhaps some colourful fresh fruit skewers. You could even pop open the prosecco, enjoy a gin and slim, a refreshing jug of Pimm's, or a tasty fruit punch. Each guest can choose their favourite things to make it a really special occasion.
