

Support for ethnic minority mothers in pregnancies after baby loss

Who are we?

We are a team of researchers from the University of Manchester who would like to speak to parents about their care experiences and support needed in pregnancies after loss.

We would like to interview mothers on Zoom who:

- Are of Black African, Black Caribbean, or Pakistani ethnicity;
- Are fluent in English, Somali, Urdu or Punjabi;
- Are over 21 years of age;
- Currently live in England;
- Have lost a baby during pregnancy or up to 28 days after birth;
- Received standard NHS maternity care during the pregnancy or pregnancies where loss was experienced;
- Currently pregnant (more than 12-weeks pregnant).

Please feel free to share this advert.

Interested? Scan
the QR code
below to learn more and sign up:

Participants will be entered into a prize draw for an Amazon voucher.

Information about this study is available in Punjabi, Urdu or Somali upon request. We can provide interpreters in interviews for Punjabi, Urdu and Somali speakers.

If you have any questions, please contact:
Zoyah Sheikh, MSc Health Psychology student.
zoyah.sheikh@postgrad.manchester.ac. uk

MANCHESTER
1824

The University of Manchester